

Fern Tweed and Bodo Von Trotha
Are Married at Quiet Service

A wedding of wide interest in Greeley was solemnized at a quiet service Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Fern Tweed became the bride of Bodo Von Trotha. The single-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hugh A. Creswell at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Matt Preston and Claude Von Trotha, brother of the groom, attended the couple. The only others present were Mr. Preston and Mrs. Creswell.

The bride was lovely in a coat dress of royal blue silk crepe, relieved with a dainty white collar. A close-fitting hat was of matching blue.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. Von Trotha and his bride left on a motor tour of New Mexico. They will be at home to their friends in about two weeks at the ranch home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Helena Von Trotha, northwest of Greeley.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Von Trotha have a large circle of friends in Greeley. Mr. Von Trotha, one of the large cattle raisers of northern Colorado, also is prominently known in Republican political circles.
